

Rödl & Partner

Press Release

THE MAGNIFICENT SEVEN: RÖDL & PARTNER IS THE LAW FIRM OF THE YEAR 2018

Prague, 5 November 2018: Once again, the international professional service firm Rödl & Partner succeeded at the annual award ceremony for the Czech Law Firm of the Year. For the seventh time in a row, Rödl & Partner has become the Czech Law Firm of the Year in the area of Tax Law.

Tax law occupies a prominent position at Rödl & Partner. It is covered not only by the firm's lawyers but also by its tax advisors and business consultants. Through this multidisciplinary approach, which brings together professionals with various fields of expertise, Rödl & Partner is able to offer its clients comprehensive solutions that address all legal, business-related and accounting aspects of tax law.

"I feel very honored to have received the 2018 Award, and I am grateful that our colleagues and our clients appreciate our dedication to this area of law, which we have been practicing from day one. Winning such a prestigious award for seven years in a row is an unprecedented success. Besides, it is a mark of public confidence in our continued ability to provide top-ranking tax law consulting services in the future, and therefore requires ever increasing commitment and effort on our part. Staying ahead of the game in today's competitive world will not be easy," says Petr Novotný, the managing partner of Rödl & Partner.

The overall attention given to tax law has been on the rise among attorneys. They have come to realize that tax law, and tax procedure in particular, has come to constitute an important part of Czech law and is no longer just a matter at the periphery of their interest, which is best left to the care of economic experts and tax advisors.

"While I expect it is going to be increasingly difficult to compete on this market, we will strive to do our best to rank among the best tax law firms also in future," Petr Novotný concludes.

The Law Firm of the Year Award was created in 2008 and has been inspired by foreign awards ranking legal firms (Chambers Global, PLC, IFLR 1000, Legal 500), which have a longstanding tradition in the West. In the Czech Republic, the award is announced annually by EPRAVO.CZ. This year's award ceremonies took place under the patronage of the Minister of Justice of the Czech Republic, Jan Kněžínek, and the Czech Bar Association.

Our contact:

JUDr. Petr Novotný, Ph.D., attorney / managing partner
Phone: + 420 236 163 111, E-mail: petr.novotny@roedl.com

Rödl & Partner

Rödl & Partner is an international professional service firm and one of the leading consulting companies in Europe. We provide integrated client experience across a wide range of legal, tax, audit, accounting and business consulting practice areas. Our branch offices are stationed worldwide in all major markets. We have a particularly strong presence in Central, Eastern and Western Europe, Asia and the USA. We have over 4700 advisors in 111 branch offices in 51 countries.

Rödl & Partner has been operating on the Czech market since 1991 from offices based in Prague and Brno and housing over 320 advisors in the area of legal counseling, tax advisory services, audit, business process outsourcing and business consulting.

We have repeatedly received the prestigious Law Firm of the Year Award in Tax Law straight through from 2012 to 2018. For details, please visit our website at www.roedl.com/cz

From left to right: Miroslav Kocman, Monika Novotná, Jakub Šotník

CONTACT FOR MEDIA:

Rödl & Partner

Jana Švédová
PR Manager
Platněnská 2
110 00 Praha 1

P +420 236 163 111
M +420 731 194 117

E-Mail: jana.svedova@roedl.com
www.roedl.com/cz