Press Release

TENTH TIME IN A ROW: RÖDL & PARTNER AS THE LAW FIRM OF THE YEAR FOR 2021

Prague, 2 November 2021: Rödl & Partner is celebrating ten years as Law Firm of the Year. Rödl & Partner has once again succeeded at the prestigious Law Firm of the Year Awards. For the tenth time in a row, we won the Law Firm of the Year Award for Tax Law and were once again recognized for the unparalleled quality of our experts in this area of law. Rödl & Partner also received awards in other categories

Tax law holds a prominent position at Rödl & Partner. It is covered not only by the firm's lawyers but also by its tax advisors and business consultants. Through this multidisciplinary approach, bringing together professionals with various areas of expertise, Rödl & Partner is able to offer its clients comprehensive solutions that address all legal, business-related and accounting aspects of tax issues.

The overall attention paid to tax law has been on the rise among lawyers over the past few years. Some of this increased attention is the result of the growing complexity and opacity of tax regulations. This also calls for a high degree of specialization on the part of the experts who are actively involved in tax law. It is not enough to merely follow the changes in domestic legislation and the case law of the Supreme Administrative Court; the norms of European law and the decision-making practice of the Court of Justice of the European Union also fundamentally affect tax law.

"Winning the award of Law Firm of the Year for Tax Law in 2021 for the tenth year in a row is something that we are very much appreciative of and humbled by. This kind of recognition represents an extraordinary success for us. I am also very pleased that our office additionally received awards in the following other categories:

Highly recommended firm in the categories of:

Logistics and transportation engineering
Health care law

Recommended firm in the categories of:

Corporate law
Real estate development and real estate projects
Mergers and acquisitions Dispute resolution and arbitration", stated Rödl & Partner's Managing Partner Petr Novotný with undisguised enthusiasm.

"Our award in the Law Firm of the Year ranking represents a great achievement for our entire team of lawyers. The award is also a message to our clients - you are in good hands. I would like to say many thanks to all our clients, colleagues and, of course, to E-pravo.cz," concludes Monika Novotná, partner at Rödl & Partner.

The Law Firm of the Year Award was created in 2008 and was inspired by foreign awards ranking legal firms (Chambers Global, PLC, IFLR 1000, Legal 500), which have a longstanding tradition in the West. In the Czech Republic, the award is announced annually by EPRAVO.CZ. This year's 14th award ceremonies took place under the patronage of the Minister of Justice of the Czech Republic and the Czech Bar Association.
