TWELVE TIMES IN A ROW: RÖDL & PARTNER IS THE LAW FIRM OF THE YEAR 2023

Prague, 7 November 2023: Rödl & Partner is once again celebrating a win. In the Law Firm of the Year ranking, our firm was voted Law Firm of the Year in Tax Law for the 12th time in a row, confirming its excellence in this field. It also won recognition in other categories as a highly recommended law firm in healthcare law, and as a recommended law firm in corporate law, real estate development and real estate projects, dispute resolution and arbitration, and in logistics and transportation engineering.

Tax law occupies a prominent position at Rödl & Partner. Both experienced lawyers and highly qualified tax advisors bring their specialized skill sets to this field. Thanks to their combined expertise, the firm can offer its clients a one-stop solution to all tax issues. The tax litigation team represents the crème de la crème of our tax advisory services.

“Becoming the law firm of the year in the field of tax law for twelve times in a row is an exceptional success, and I accept this award with gratitude for the trust we have been receiving from our clients for all these years,” comments Petr Novotný, the managing partner of Rödl & Partner.

He also adds: “I truly appreciate the opportunity and honor to rank among the best, and I am thankful that our clients and our colleagues recognize us as experts in tax law, a practice area in which we have specialized for a long time.” Rödl & Partner was historically one of the first advisory firms to build a specialized tax litigation team to represent clients before the tax authorities and courts.

“Our basic goal is to retain the confidence of our clients, which requires both in-depth technical expertise and an ability to seek out new solutions,” says Jakub Šotník, a lawyer from the tax litigation team. And Kateřina Jordanovová adds that the firm’s tax litigation team gives its client the confidence that they will be able to defend their solutions both before tax authorities and administrative courts.

Rödl & Partner was also recognized in other categories, such as:

Highly recommended law firm in:

- Healthcare law

Recommended law firm in:

- Corporate law
- Real estate development and real estate projects
- Dispute resolution and arbitration
- Logistics and transportation engineering

This is a tremendous achievement for the entire team of lawyers, to whom many thanks are due for their unparalleled dedication to client service.

Our success is also a message to our clients - you are in good hands. "Solving the problems faced by our clients is what drives us to continually hone our expertise. We are thrilled and grateful that this expertise has been recognized by an award that puts us at the top of the law firm rankings in this area," added Monika Novotná, partner at Rödl & Partner.

We would also like to give our profound thanks to E-pravo.cz for long-term cooperation and for organizing the Law Firm of the Year awards, which E-pravo.cz has been doing every year for the last fifteen years.

The Law Firm of the Year Award was created in 2008 and was inspired by foreign awards ranking legal firms (Chambers Global, PLC, IFLR 1000, Legal 500), which have a longstanding tradition in the West. In the Czech Republic, the award is announced annually by EPRAVO.CZ. This year's 16th award ceremonies took place under the patronage of the Minister of Justice of the Czech Republic and the Czech Bar Association.
