RÖDL & PARTNER CONFIRMS ITS LEADING POSITION IN TAX LAW FOR THE FOURTEENTH CONSECUTIVE YEAR

Prague, 26 November 2025 – Rödl & Partner has once again been honoured with the Law Firm of the Year award in the tax law category, a distinction the firm has now held for fourteen consecutive years. The firm also received recognition in several additional practice areas: Highly Recommended in healthcare law, and Recommended in corporate law, real estate and development, mergers and acquisitions, and logistics and transport infrastructure.

Tax law is central to the firm's practice. The team combines the expertise of attorneys and tax advisors, enabling comprehensive advice to be delivered under one roof. At its core is a dedicated tax litigation practice, representing clients before administrative authorities and courts, a team long recognised among the leaders in its field.

We are deeply honoured by this year's award in tax law. It is both a privilege and a validation of our team's longstanding expertise," says Petr Novotný, Managing Partner at Rödl & Partner advokáti. "It is gratifying to know that our work is regarded as a benchmark of quality, and that we continue to enjoy the trust of our clients and the respect of the wider professional community."

Rödl & Partner was among the first advisory firms in the Czech Republic to establish a specialist tax litigation capability. Jakub Šotník, Partner and Head of the Tax Litigation Team, observes: "Consistency at this level reflects something beyond technical skill – it speaks to a culture of continuous improvement and close collaboration across the firm."

Mr Šotník notes that much of the firm's strength lies in its integrated approach: viewing tax matters in their broader commercial context and drawing on expertise across practice areas to deliver thoughtful, well-considered solutions. This collaborative culture enables the firm to respond to new challenges with both rigour and flexibility and cements its position as the standard-setter in tax dispute resolution.

Hans-Ulrich Theobald, Managing Partner of Rödl & Partner advokáti, adds that the alignment of tax and legal services, both in the Czech Republic and internationally, ensures clients benefit from a coherent, strategically sound approach, particularly in complex transactions.

The firm was also recognised in the following categories:

Highly Recommended:

- Healthcare Law

Recommended:

- Corporate Law
- Real Estate and Development Projects
- Mergers and Acquisitions
- Logistics and Transport Infrastructure

This success is the product of intensive, coordinated teamwork across the legal practice. As Partner Monika Novotná observes, the award is above all a testament to collective endeavour, and to the enduring trust of clients who rely on the firm in challenging situations that demand certainty, expert guidance, and a clearly defined strategy.

The firm extends its thanks to EPRAVO.CZ for organising the Law Firm of the Year competition, now in its eighteenth year. Established in 2008 and modelled on leading international directories including Chambers Global, Legal 500, and IFLR 1000, the competition is held under the auspices of the Ministry of Justice and the Czech Bar Association.
